FESTIVAL SPONSOR/VENDOR RULES

1. Set Up

Vendor set up is scheduled for the morning of the event, beginning at 8:00 a.m. The address is Main Street, Hurricane, WV 25526. All food vendors with tents, trailers, and other vending equipment must be present and ready for local health department inspection by 10:30 am. All food vendors with tents, trailers, and other vending equipment must be set up and ready to serve food by noon on Saturday, April 14. Non-food vendors may set up at the same time. All vendors must supply their own tents, tables, electrical cords, water hoses, lights, etc. They must also be 220v compatible if power is needed. Please look for the name of your business marked at your assigned location. You will receive a site map upon arrival.

2. Pricing Guidelines

Vendors are permitted to sell items with all profits benefiting the vendor. The West Virginia Food Truck Festival does require the pricing for each item be limited at $5.00. No item can be available for purchase over $5.00. It is requested that items for purchase are of substantial snack size.

3. Patron Entrance Times (Approximate)

Gates will open at noon. The festival music will end at 5:00 p.m. All times are subject to change.

4. Safety

You are solely responsible for complying with all safety, health, and fire code requirements. You must have a fire extinguisher at your location if you are dealing with any electronic, cooking, or grilling equipment. Local Health Department enforcement will be available and conducted the morning of the event.

5. Water & Electrical Hook-up & Ice

The use of individual generators is prohibited. The Festival will provide access to a generator. You must provide the power cord. Water will be available, but you are responsible for containers to bring it to your location. You must indicate on your application whether or not you are a heavy electric load user. We will have ice on the premises available for your purchase/convenience.

6. Access to Location During Event

During the event you will not be allowed to operate a motor vehicle or other vehicle to and from your vending location. You must stock your supplies in advance and make suitable arrangements to operate your space without travelling across Festival grounds. Given the number of persons expected to attend, this rule must be strictly enforced. Should an emergency arise, please contact Festival staff so that your concerns may be resolved.

7. Indemnification and Insurance

You are solely responsible for any injuries, accidents, or losses which may be sustained as a result of your vending operations at Main Street in Hurricane. The Putnam County Chamber of Commerce, Putnam County Convention & Visitors Bureau, City of Hurricane, and the Putnam County Parks & Recreation shall have no responsibility for any accident or injury caused by your activities. You must maintain your own liability insurance and have proof of insurance available during the Festival for inspection purposes. By participating in the West Virginia Food Truck Festival, you are agreeing to indemnify and hold harmless from any damages, lawsuits, or claims arising out of any injuries or accidents occasioned by your activities. Please send a copy of your insurance certificate with your application.

8. Exclusivity

The West Virginia Food Truck Festival is unable to guarantee any exclusivity or restrictions on the number of vendors or the type of products sold. You will be assigned a space based upon the judgment of the Festival, and no locations are guaranteed. We will certainly do our best to provide you with a convenient and suitable space for the sale of your products.

9. Conduct

The West Virginia Food Truck Festival is a family oriented event. You should refrain from selling any products which would offend children or which would otherwise not fit the format of this type of function. Alcohol sales are not permitted at the event, unless you are a festival pre-approved brewery. You are responsible for the behavior of your employees, and all vendors must conduct themselves in a courteous and polite manner. Our image is important to us, and by following these simple procedures, you will benefit.

10. Clean-Up

All vending materials must be removed from the park no later than the Saturday, April 14, 2018 after the festival at 5:30 p.m. You are responsible for removing all debris and cooking materials (coals, etc.) from the site.

11. Security

The West Virginia Food Truck Festival will provide security beginning Saturday before the event and during the event. While such security is provided, the West Virginia Food Truck Festival, Putnam County Chamber of Commerce, Putnam County CVB, City of Hurricane and the Putnam County Parks and Recreation, shall not be responsible for any stolen, lost, or damaged items of equipment or personal belongings. You shall be solely responsible for the protection and safeguarding of valuables and release those previously listed from any losses or damage to your property. Please handle your affairs as you deem appropriate with respect to protecting your equipment and belongings.

12. General Provisions

All vendor fees are nonrefundable. Your payment of the entry fee constitutes your right to participate at the Festival. Should any entry fees not clear our account or not be paid in full, you relinquish the right to participate at the event. The West Virginia Food Truck Festival will not return any vendor fees for any reason. The West Virginia Food Truck Festival is a rain or shine event, and vendor fees cannot be returned in the event of inclement weather.

The refundable deposit will be refunded after the vendor participates in the full duration of the event. Failure to show up or failure to be present for the full duration of the event will result in forfeiture of the vendor deposit. Deposits will be returned to all vendors who qualify for reimbursement of the deposit not later than 7 days after the event.

13. Vendor Passes

Prior to the event, please pick up your vendor I.D. for the event at the designated check-in area. Please ensure that all employees wear the appropriate vendor I.D. at all times during the Festival event.
